The topping out ceremony was attended by key stakeholders of the development and marked a significant milestone for the overall project. Here are some of the key highlights:

Architectural Excellence: Designed by VERITAS Architects, Malaysia-based award winning international multi-disciplinary design firm, Tower 1 at Oxley Towers KLCC is an embodiment of opulence, luxury and prestige. This tower, the fourth tallest building in Malaysia at 345 metres above ground, boasts the world's highest open-to-sky swimming pool at 325 metres above ground.

Construction Progress: This new milestone has further strengthened Oxley's position as a premier real estate developer in Malaysia, boosting the confidence of purchasers, investors and stakeholders.

Environmental Commitment: Oxley Towers KLCC embodies numerous Green Building Principles in its design and construction, in line with Oxley's commitment towards environmentally responsible and sustainable development practices.

Mr. Ching Chiat Kwong, Executive Chairman and CEO of Oxley Holdings Limited, remarked: "This is an important milestone for us, and we are excited to see the final topping out of the highest tower amongst the three at Oxley Towers KLCC. Upon completion, it is expected to be one of the most iconic skyscrapers in the heart of Kuala Lumpur City Centre"

As its overall construction progresses, Oxley Towers KLCC continues to generate anticipation and interest among investors and future residents and visitors.
